DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to Applicant's amendment filed on 19 February 2010.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-8 are allowed. Claim 1 is the independent claim.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of record is U.S. Patent 5,971,682 to Vig. Vig discloses a chuck 1 for angular offset woodturning, said chuck comprising a first member 3 adapted to be removably secured to a headstock spindle of a lathe (not shown, see column 2, lines 62-65), and a second member 2 adapted to support a workpiece and removably secured to said first member in such a manner that said second member may be oriented with respect to said first member between at least two configurations (see column 3, lines 1-5), said first member having a first longitudinal axis substantially coaxial with an axis of rotation of said spindle and said second member having a second longitudinal axis, and in one of said configurations said second longitudinal axis is substantially coaxial with said first longitudinal axis, and in the or each other configuration said second longitudinal axis is angularly offset to said first longitudinal axis (see column 4, lines 5-63).

Suffice it to say, the patent to Vig does not disclose "wherein said chuck further comprises a releasable fastening member incorporating alignment members allowing said second member to be repeatedly secured in any of said at least two configurations and that in said other configuration said second axis lies relative to said first axis at one of a limited number of predetermined angular offsets” as claimed in independent claim 1, and as such does not anticipate the instant invention as disclosed in independent claim 1.

Furthermore, there is no combinable teaching in the prior art of record that would reasonably motivate one having ordinary skill in the art to so modify the teachings of Vig, and thus, for at least the foregoing reasoning, the prior art of record does not render obvious the present invention as set forth in independent claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to ERIC A. GATES whose telephone number is (571)272-5498. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Thurs 8:45 - 6:15, Alt Fri 8:45 - 5:15.
